35% Presidential Campaign Internship

32%

- J Log of internship hours (due 24 April). You will keep track of the dates and times that you work at your internship placement. A form will be provided in the Field Work Packet of materials distributed in class on 10 January. Have your supervisor sign off on your hours at the end of each shift.

- J Journal of Internship experiences (due 24 April) In a separate notebook, record your internship experiences – describe the projects you work on, the campaign meetings and events you attend, and what you are learning about campaigns and elections as a result of your internship experience. Include press clips, event invitations, campaign literature, photos, scripts, and any other materials that will illustrate the projects you are describing in your journal. NOTE: There will be a mid point review of your journals to be sure that you are on the right track with the assignment (in terms of quantity and quality of journal entries and in terms of the work that you are doing at your internship placement). The mid point review will take place on 28 February.

- J Internship Paper (7-10 pages) (due 24 April) Discuss what you have learned about presidential campaigns and elections through your participation in the internship.
