Follow-Up

- Paul Kirchman stated that they did address certain cases (particularly re: staff) and will have more to put forward the next time, when more cases can be addressed all at once.
- Campuses will do their own adjustments. Not comparable across the three campuses. Staff yes, but not Faculty.
- T. Shimizu: We addressed issues of severe compression, e.g., in which Assistant Professors are getting higher than Associate Professors. We need to look at Instructors also, resolved some of the major issues. Next year, look at more at different levels.
- (JC) Can be an issue in terms of retention.
