
Overview of Residential Education

Student Success at the University of South Florida (USF) is a preeminent organization that inspires learning and transforms the lives of students for lifelong success. Student Success provides learning opportunities and environments for students to discover, integrate, and apply new knowledge that increases their capacity for personal growth, responsible citizenship, and ethical leadership.

Guided by the direction of Student Success, Residential Education at the University of South Florida provides a safe community, groundbreaking initiatives, and quality high-impact services and practices that contribute to residential student success. Our dynamic residential experience produces proud USF alumni and engaged global

- Support and promote social justice education programming and initiatives, sponsored departmentally and university

Compensation

The Assistant Residence Life Coordinator is a live-on position that receives a competitive stipend of approximately $16,000 per 12 months (before tax) and a tuition waiver for up to nine (9) graduate credit hours per semester (not including fees) and partial reimbursement for Student Health Insurance policy premium. The Assistant Residence Life Coordinator must live in a furnished on-campus apartment with utilities.

USF is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity, Equal Access Institution committed to diversity.