Report of the Auditor General on the audit of the Board of Trustees (17-00510)

On April 4, 2024,

§ 217(1) and 447.007, Florida Statutes (2022)

Disputant for page 42

The Board of Trustees is responsible for the management and operation of the State of Florida's public lands. The Board's primary duty is to protect and preserve the State's natural resources for the benefit of the people of Florida. The Board is also responsible for the development and implementation of policies and procedures that govern the management of the State's public lands. The Board's actions are subject to the oversight of the Auditor General, who is responsible for ensuring that the Board is acting in the best interests of the State and its citizens.
